STORY OF A BASH-

FUL MAN AND A DEMURE MAIDEN

That Begins Back East and Ends
Here—Generous Uncle Bill Gives Timely Advice to His Newly Married
Niece.

"By the way," said Uncle Bill, "bless me if there ain't one thing we have all clean forgotten." "What's that," asked Hettie and Harry in unison. "Why none of us had thought about fuel yet and it will be up hill business cooking and keeping warm without fuel, but," continued Uncle Bill in the same sentence, "we will fix that very soon with my friends, Yerkes & Prichard, Paris' best known and most active coal and fuel dealers, who have been serving the people faithfully for many years at their commodious yards. The big bins never run low except in case of a famine, which are filled with clean, merchantable first quality soft and anthracite coal all the time, comprising variety and quantity adequate to meet the demands of a long list of patrons who depend on Yerkes & Prichard year in and year out, knowing that an order placed with this firm means full measure and prompt delivery, at line and best line prices." Hence the young people are the newest customers listed.

"I tell you this is a keen morning," said Uncle Bill to the happy pair as they emerged from their boudoir in response to the second ringing of the breakfast bell. "Yes," responded both and after breakfast we'll go down to Jantary & Connell's and get a hot blast heater. This is the same firm that sold us our nice Miller Range last week, of which January & Connell have placed over 400 in this and adjoining counties and they also put the roof on our new house and they are argeeable people to deal with too. January & Connell are in fact the largest and oldest established tinner and roofing contractors anywhere in this neck of the woods. At their well fitted shops and ware rooms they employ only skilled artisans and do every character of sheet metal work, tinning and roofing in all its branches and no firm in Kentucky enjoys a better name for straightforward business methods or for promptness in all contracts entrusted into their hands.

Carroll Will Be Nominated.

Judge John D. Carroll will today be declared the Democratic nominee for Judge of the Court of Appeals from the Fifth Appellate District. The committee will meet at the Phoenix Hotel at noon today and at a meeting on August 28 a primary was called for November 21 but there being no other candidate to oppose Judge Carroll the committee will resolve itself into a convention and will nominate him. Mr. C. C. Clark, of North Middletown, the member of the committee from Bourbon, will attend the meeting.

Police Chief Accidentally Shot.

The accidental discharge of his revolver which he was examining before going on duty inflicted a painful wound in the right leg of Chief of Police J. C. Elgin Saturday evening at his home on Covent Heights. Chief Elgin had finished his supper and was making preparations to leave his house to go on duty and as was his custom was making an examination of his revolver. He had on his gloves and was making an effort to raise the hammer when his finger slipped off and the weapon was discharged. The bullet took effect in his leg between the knee and ankle causing a painful flesh wound. Physicians were summoned and his injuries were dressed by Drs. Daugherty, Evans and Evans. Chief Elgin suffered considerable pain from the wound, but is reported to be getting along very well now.

Report of the Head Physician in a Leading New York Hospital on the Cure of Catarrh.

"A few years ago we considered that we were doing well if we cured ten per cent. of the cases of catarrh brought to us, but since the introduction of 'Bloodine' into our hospital we cure more than 90 per cent. of all the cases of Catarrh in its various forms brought to us. Catarrh of the Head, Catarrh of the Eyes, Catarrh of the Bladder and Urethra, Catarrh of the Large Intestines, Catarrh of the Larynx, Catarrh, Catarrh of the Throat, and Catarrh of the Stomach are quickly cured with 'Bloodine.' It builds new tissues, gives new energy, new life, new blood and strength to any part of the body attacked by the Catarrhal germs."

Bloodine is a powerful tonic, nourishing food medicine, composed of valuable tonic stimulants obtained from vegetable drugs. 'Bloodine' contains no narcotics or other dangerous drugs which merely deaden pain temporarily, but give no permanent relief or cure the cause of your disease. 'Bloodine' is a powerful body builder and blood maker; it is the best remedy known to the medical profession to enrich thin, watery blood and supply new, rich red blood to the whole body.

Another Shell Game.

It is declared in Washington political circles that the Republicans are going to try to sidetrack the "tariff and increased cost of living" issue in the next campaign, and make the party's big appeal for support on the currency question. Republican leaders in both branches of Congress are at work on speeches the import of which will be that "the business interests will suffer as long as the currency system remains as it now is." The modified Aldrich plan on which the Republicans intend to go before the country provides for a $500,000,000 "National Reserve Association," which practically amounts to a central government bank.

This reserve association will have power on issue emergency currency, and to practically dictate the banking policy of the country, and to control the credit of the business world—a vast power.

Democrats in Congress have frequently pointed out the danger of allowing the money power to become any more centered than it already is, and many students of finance contend that the proposed reserve association would be little more than a money trust, whose controlling factor would very likely be the same group of men who now dominate Wall street and the Republican party.

A Non-Partisan Plunderbund.

The American Protective Tariff League has adopted the following resolutions: "Resolved, that we strongly recommend that our members and connections work and vote for the defeat of any candidate who is not a protectionist, and work and vote for the election of all candidates of whatsoever party who are protectionists."

Here we have the plan of the plunderbund. There is no partisanship in the American Protective Tariff League. While it ordinarily works with the Republican party it stands ready to bolt any Republican who is not willing to take his orders from the tariff barons; it will render assistance to any Democrat who is willing to betray his constituents into the hands of the tax eaters. How long will it take the consumers to learn the real character of the man who makes his money out of a protective tariff. How long can the consumer be misled by the appeal to his patriotism when the protectionist has no thought beyond the amount of money that he can squeeze from the public through the operation of law.

It is high time that the farmers, mechanics, merchants and the general public get together and resolve to oppose protectionists and to favor those who are pledged to a reduction of the extortionate tariff rates.

Avoid Parading Troubles.

"Expectin' a man to find satisfaction in hearin' about yoh troubles," said Uncle Eben, "gives him credit oh havin' a purty pore disposition."

Tobacco Trust Still a Trust.

In the opinion of many students of the trust question the tobacco trust is the victor. That is the real meaning they give the approval by the United States Circuit Court of New York of the tobacco trust's reorganization plan. The tobacco trust is to remain. Competition is not restored. The stock ownership is not divided. The actual activities of manufacture and distribution are not even placed under different supervisions. The circuit court politely declines the responsibility of making an order which shall make the business of the tobacco trust fulfill the Supreme Court's interpretation of the Sherman law. Discussing the possibility of ordering a receivership and the sale of the tobacco trust properties, the lower court says it could not prevent the present owners from bidding in the property if they were so inclined. In other words the tobacco trust is not "busted." Indeed, it is scarcely scratched.

A Great Fight.

The Democrats and Progressive Republicans made a great fight in New Mexico. While they failed to carry the state legislature because of the gerrymandering of the state, they surprised their friends outside by what they did accomplish and proved that New Mexico is fighting ground. The Democrats in the Legislature should begin at once to insist upon the ratification of the income tax amendment to the constitution. That ought to be the first act passed by the legislature, and the second ought to be the submission of the initiative and referendum. These two acts will make a good beginning for the new state.

What the People Pay.

The people of the United States pay a subsidy in artificially high prices to the wool industry of at least $104,000,000 a year according to the calculations of Hon. Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, chairman of the Ways and Means committee of the House of Representatives.

"The Payne-Aldrich tax of 61 cents per yard to say nothing of any increase in tax as it passes to the jobber, makes not less than $104,000,000 paid each year to subsidize the wool industry of America," says Mr. Underwood. "Now, the entire actual duties paid the United States on all imports of woollens and worsteds in 1910, amounted to less than $15,500,000, which means that of the $104,000,000 extorted from the consumers of woollens nearly $90,000,000 went to the wool interests."

"Is it fair or just or right to maintain these enormous taxes unduly to foster the business of less than one-fourth of one per cent of the people and to require ninety-nine and three-fourths per cent to stagger under this enormous burden. I for one do not believe the American people will justify the President in his veto of the wool schedule."

At Cost for Cash.

Beginning on November 15 our entire stock of millinery will be sold for cash for the next seventeen days, or until December 1 at cost and below. In order to get the cash we will make this sacrifice on all trimmed hats, pattern hat, ribbons, trimmings, etc. We have a good line of $6 and $7 hats that we will sell at $3.50.

This is a rare opportunity for those needing millinery, as this advertisement is not made to fool the public but to impress them that we are willing to sacrifice our stock to turn it into cash at once.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good."

It is non-secret, non-alcoholic and has a record of forty years of cures. Ask Your Neighbors. They probably know of some of its many cures. If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

STORY OF A BASHFUL MAN AND A DEMURE MAIDEN

"Well, the next question on the dock," ventured Uncle Bill to Hettie, "is to arrange about supplies for the larder. It is the housewife sequel to maintaining the good graces of the men folks. Now for select table groceries and provisions and toothsome table delicacies and imported fruits and vegetables of every kind. I'll escort you to C. P. Cook & Co., conducting a well appointed and completely stocked fancy grocery, where there is always shown a varied assortment of the most tempting good things to eat in town. His patrons come from every nook and corner hereabouts and presumably for a reason. Perhaps it is because they appreciate the superior and correct ways that characterize the business dealings of C. P. Cook, our wide awake and well versed grocer and purveyor of the larder, where there is a large and varied stock from which to select at all times," said Uncle Bill.

"Next I want you to recommend a good market," said Hettie to Uncle Bill. "One that I can depend upon all the time." "Well for good meats, honest weights, and a nice all around place to trade," advised Uncle Bill, smiling good naturedly, "it's Albert Anthon's market you want to trade with. There you will find every day in the week the choicest and best fresh and cured meats that money, experience and vigilant effort can obtain.

The best and fattest cattle, veal and lambs are bought on the roof and are carefully slaughtered and dressed by skilled help with a view to meeting in every particular, the demands of the long list of exacting patrons. Albert Anthon is equipped with ample cold storage facilities and maintains a good delivery service. And considering all in all the basis upon which this market is catering to the public, it is admirable in every way, and fully merits the run of business accorded it, and the good name that so many give it," said Uncle Bill assuringly.

"Oh yes, Uncle you were to take us for a drive," said Hettie. "Yes, yes, so I was and I will keep my word too," said Uncle Bill. Just then a pair of spirited steeds drawing a substantial and attractive trap, with fine trappings apparent, drew up in front of the home. "This rig came from J. U. Boardman, our best equipped stable here," continued Uncle Bill. "It is truly a commodious and well ordered livery stable in every particular where are kept good vehicles for all uses, and good horses, too, including some 'high steppers,' let out at a reasonable price and it is this kind of business effort that has brought this popular barn under the management of J. U. Boardman into good standing with the public and made it deserving of good will and patronage of which it is the recipient," added Uncle Bill.

At this juncture Harry complained of the saw edges on his cellar. "Oh, yes, Uncle, I want you to recommend a reliable laundry," said Hettie. "Harry is positively cranky about his linens."

"All right," said Uncle Bill as he laughed heartily, "if you will call up or send it to the Bourbon Steam Laundry you need have no further apprehension. It has been doing my work for a long time, and I find it the best and promptest laundry in these parts. The busy delivery wagons are seen sealing corners at double quick gait all over the town every day, gathering up or delivering its work faultlessly laundered to a world of customers. Besides Davis & Funk, the proprietors, and their corps of assistants, are ever prompt, alert and pleasant in managing the business affairs, whether it is for the local or out of town customers, that are reached by agencies at all tributary points."

Saved Child From Death.

"After our child had suffered from severe bronchial trouble for a year," wrote G. T. Richardson, of Richardson's Mills, Ala., "we feared it had consumption. It had a bad cough all the time. We tried many remedies without avail, and doctors' medicines seemed as useless. Finally we tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and we are pleased to say that one bottle effected a complete cure, and he is again strong and healthy." For coughs, colds, hoarseness, lagrippe, asthma, croup and sore lungs it's the most infallible remedy that's made. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Oberdorfer.

PLANT STAND FOR A WINDOW
One That Can Be Moved Easily is Always in Demand—Can Be Constructed by Handy Person.

A plant stand that can be moved easily is always in demand by whoever grows flowers. The accompanying design can be constructed by anyone handy with tools. It should be made in a substantial manner, for when weighted down with pots it will be subject to considerable strain when moved, and a flimsy framework would soon come apart and the stand collapse, plants and all.

Of course, such a stand can be made of any size to fit the window, writes Sylvanus Van Aken in the Orange-Judd Farmer. When one desires to make the room more attractive for a party it may be wheeled away and placed against the wall, the shelves facing the room. It will thus provide a bank of plants and flowers. Its portability is also a great advantage on cold nights, since it saves the labor of moving pots one by one, as is necessary where stationary plants or tables without casters are used.

In summer, when plants go out of doors, it may be set against the side of the house in a sheltered place, and it will be as useful as indoors.

The design illustrated herewith is two feet high, two feet from front to back, and three feet long at the back. The shelves are each eight inches wide and three inches deep. The top one is three feet long, the middle two and one-half feet long and the bottom two feet long. These shelves should be covered with a couple of inches of sand, in which the pots are to be plunged. If this sand is kept moist it will prevent unusual drying of the soil in the pots. The whole framework should be mounted on casters, preferably of iron, and braces should be placed at the back and across the bottom, as shown in the drawing.

CAUSE OF CHESTNUT BLIGHT

Withering of Trees Is Result of Boring by Insect Between Outer and Inner Bark.

Thomas Davy Candy of Langhorne, near Philadelphia, declares that he has discovered the cause of the blight which is withering chestnut trees in the middle and south Atlantic states. A boring beetle, one-sixteenth of an inch long, black in color, which lays its eggs between the outer and the inner barks, is the primary cause, he says. Grubs are hatched from the eggs, and these penetrate the soft inner bark, following its course around the tree trunk. Above the patch of the borer occurs the blighted appearance. Myriads of the tiny worms were found upon a single tree upon Mr. Candy's land, and the total result of their depredations was so extensive that the tree, he says, appears to have been scorched by fire. The blight has become so serious in Pennsylvania that the legislature appropriated $275,000 to a commission appointed by the governor to investigate the cause of the disease and to devise ways for exterminating it.

METHOD OF COLORING WOOD

Substantial Change in Color of Tissues Effected by Injection of Matter Into Trees.

Staining wood after it has been sawed, planed and converted into woodwork or furniture is a most ordinary procedure, but the staining of the wood while the tree it composes is alive and growing is a departure from old methods. The illustration shows a device by which coloring matter is injected into the tissues of the tree in such manner that it will be distributed by the natural circulation of the sap, thus effecting a substantial change in the color of the tissues with which it comes in contact.

Distance for Apples.

Apple trees do best at a distance of two rods each way, unless it is a variety that tends to grow upward rather than outward. Such trees may be set 25 feet apart.

Original "Yeggman."
The word yeggman is said to have originated from the criminal exploits of John Yegg, who, according to criminal tradition, was a Swedish desperado who operated in the Pacific coast states in the late seventies.

CAUSE AND REMEDY.

Uncertainty of the immediate future is looked upon by many men of affairs, as a blockade to enterprise and business prosperity, and this blockade is now quite apparent throughout the channels of trade.

The Presidential Election; the efforts of Congress with no fixed purpose; Organized Labor as a new factor in politics; together with other matters of greater or less import, represent at this time a chaotic conflict of separate interests, to harmonize which is now the problem before the country.

All want Prosperity, Peace and Plenty. Read with care the Cincinnati Enquirer, a journal that prints all the news each day from every commercial center throughout the world. A barometer of causes and effects that points out, as a Beacon Light, the danger and the safeguard therefrom.

As well known, the Daily Enquirer is the largest in size and highest priced paper in the United States, yet cheapest, measured by quality and quantity.

The Weekly Enquirer, with the cream and digest of all the news, able and conservative editorials, market reports, methods and results from Government and State Experiment Stations, veterinary matters, People's Forum, choice literature, short and continued stories, non-sectarian sermons, general information, etc., with the exclusion of all matters of scandal and immorality, is today the Cleanest Weekly Family Journal obtainable. Each issue is alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

Solicitors for subscriptions make a handsome profit and increase the good influence of The Enquirer in the uplift of morality and industry, and for the betterment and welfare of the community. For terms write to The Enquirer, Cincinnati, Ohio.

We Have Opened Toyland With a Display of Thousands Upon Thousands of Toys.

Now is the Time for Children of Paris and Miles and Miles Around.

Toyland—the world of make-believe—has opened, exhibiting thousands and thousands of joy-creating and pleasure giving toys so dear to the heart of children. Every child in this whole town is invited to visit Toyland. Here you will find the very biggest display of toys and dolls you have ever seen. Santa Claus just simply dumped Toys into our store by the carload. There are wee, tiny undressed dolls of china, to big, queenly looking ones dressed in silks and satins, and they come from all over the world—Germany, France and our own United States—priced at 10c to $15. Then there are horns, drums, doll carriages, wagons, pianos, games, steam engines that really run, electric toys in all of the many mechanical contrivances—why, we could fill this whole page with just the names of the toys—so you can imagine how many thousands of toys are on display, and every toy is arranged so that it can be easily seen, with the price marked in plain figures.

You Really Must Bring the Children Here, for Seeing the Display of These Christmas Toys is More to Them Than for You to See a Once-in-a-Life-Time Spectacle : : :

Too, this opening of Toyland is of interest to you, for haven't YOU got to get toys for some little child in your family? If you'll take our advice you'll select to-day—for right at this time is the very best time possible to make selections.

THEATRICAL.

DANTE'S "INFERNO."

The arraignment of the guilty souls before the infernal judge, the heat stirring scene on the banks of the River Acheron are rendered with a dramatic power and intensity, of which words can give but a faint idea. The height of moving picture realism, however, is reached when the two poets on their journey through hell arrive at the gray and cithered cliffs of the Stygian swamps, where the vilest are confined. The system of signals by which the infernal powers send news of the coming and passing of guilty souls through the various regions, so graphically described by Dante, is shown with a thrilling and overwhelming realism in the picture.

The great dramatic moment in Dante's poem comes with the arrival of the poet at the gates of the City of Dis. The scenes here follow each other in rapid succession, reaching a most powerful climax when Virgil seems filled with despair and inclined to retrace his steps. The makers of the film have done full justice to this most exacting portion of the poem and the spectator finds himself thrilled and awed in turns. Nor is there any abatement in artistic power and refinement as the poem approaches its end. The last circle in the Inferno depicting the punishment of Traitors is among the most impressive.

Every step increases our admiration for the film makers and renews and enhances our enjoyment and understanding of the poem. Numerous instances could be cited showing how even in the minutest detail the picture seized the conception of Dante and worked them out with patient and artistic endeavor. A few may suffice. We mention the flight of the evil spirits like frogs before the serpent at the appearance of the angel before the gates of the City of Dis, the floating of Francesca da Rimini and her lover through air "so light before the wind" the changing of the robbers into hideous shapes assuming a color like that of paper which has been signed by flame, the pouring forth upon the earth of the miserable spirit in the circle of the embezzlers. Instances like this could be multiplied by the dozen.

Dante's "Inferno" with a celebrated lecture, special musician and startling effects will be presented at the Paris Grand Opera House Wednesday and Thursday, November 29 and 30, with matinee November 30.

Fritzi Scheff, the opera star and wife of John Fox, Jr., announced her retirement from the stage in Philadelphia last week.

"PRINCESS IRIS."

The beautiful, bewildering fantasy, "Princess Iris," with many new and thrilling features produced with superb scenery and mechanical effects will be seen at the Paris Grand Opera House 24 and 25, with matinee Saturday afternoon.

From the beginning to the end it is a carnival of excellent fun, indelibly stamping it as the big fun show of all shows. Probably no entertainment ever arranged for the amusement loving public has been so carefully staged, as the many bewildering illusions that are introduced during the action of the play, not only requires a good deal of attention but also a lavish outlay of money for their construction, and when seen will not only amuse but charm the eye of all beholders.

The stars of the play, Mildred and Rouclere, need no introduction as their long line of success stamps them as artists of the highest rank and their supporting company is in keeping with their standard.

During the action of the play many pleasing specialties will be introduced and amongst the many will be "Azra," the aerial fantasy; that of a living woman floating in the air and disappearing right before the eyes of the audience.

Don't forget the date, Friday and Saturday, November 24 and 25, with matinee Saturday afternoon. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents; matinee, children 15 cents, adults 25 cents.

MYSTERY.

That is what the Rouclere show mostly consists of, and it is fair to say the people of Paris will be pleased to know that there is coming to the Grand a show of this kind.

Mr. Rouclere, assisted by Mildred, will mystify the audience as they never have before. They give the most remarkable exhibition of Mildredism or mind reading witnessed at this age.

Mr. Knapp, the manager, has, during his stay in Paris, distributed twenty-five free tickets, which are good for the Rouclere show on its opening date, November 24. These tickets are good for admission and one best seat to the one who is lucky enough to find one of them.

Every ticket is hid in plain open sight so if you want a free ticket just keep your eyes open.

A change of program will be given the second night also a special matinee will be given Saturday afternoon at an admission of 15 and 25 cents.

MRS. CORNE W. BAIRD.

DEATH.

—Mr. John J. Connor died at his home on the Thatchers Mill pike Thursday afternoon after an illness of only a few weeks. The direct cause of his death being paralysis, a stroke of which he suffered four days before his death.

Mr. Connor had resided in Bourbon county nearly all of his life and resided on the land occupied by the old Thatcher's Mill near the Clark county line.

In many respects Mr. Connor was a remarkable man and at the advanced age of 68 years was exceedingly active. In his younger days he performed almost impossible feats, being possessed with almost superhuman strength.

Mr. Connor was a gallant Confederate soldier and his enlistment in the Southern army, which came about in an unusual way, was one of the most important incidents of his early life.

During the early part of the conflict and when Paris and the vicinity was occupied by the Federal forces Mr. Connor was in town and while standing on the streets a Federal scout fired into the crowd wounding Mr. Connor in the leg. Stopping down he tore the clothing from the wound and removed the bullet with his hands. The wound gave him little trouble and in a short time he enlisted in the Confederate service.

He is survived by a widow, formerly Miss Everman, and three children, Mr. John Connor, of Portsmouth, Ohio, Mrs. Mamie Palmer and Miss Jennie Connor, of Athens, Ga., all of whom were with their father when the end came.

The funeral services were conducted at his late residence Saturday morning at ten o'clock and the burial took place in the family lot in the Clintonville cemetery.

Mikhail Mordkin's All-Star Imperial Russian Ballet.

Mikhail Mordkin's All-Star Imperial Russian Ballet which will be seen at the Lexington Opera House November 27, 1911, is the greatest choreographic organization ever given leave of absence from the Imperial Opera Houses of St. Petersburg and Moscow. Although loath to lose the services of Russia's favorite dancers, the Imperial Government gave Impresario Max Rabinoff every aid in organizing this big company. Their object, some observers say, nothing more or less than that of the press agent.

Indeed, Nicholas, Czar of all the Russians, is called by some the greatest of that ever increasing cult of publicity men. He deprives himself of the pleasure of seeing his greatest dancers for another whole season, and has permitted his court musicians, the Balalaika Orchestra, to cross the seas in order that public opinion in America may be further favorably shaped. Last year's tremendous success of the Pavlowa Mordkin company set America to thinking: "If Russia can produce such as this surely the country cannot be as unenlightened as it is painted."

In appealing to American judgment, Russia chose a medium, too, which strikes not only the intellectuals, but the good plain ordinary people as well. The highbrows flock to see the Mordkin company because the members represent the flower of Russian high art. Business men and others who would yawn their heads off at Grand Opera or an Ibsen drama, go to see the ocular opera, because they thoroughly enjoy the marvelous dancing, movement, color and exquisite music. At the Metropolitan Opera House, which engaged the Mordkin ballet for performances during December and January of this year, financiers and business men whose boast is that they go to the Metropolitan only to escort their wives and daughters sit up and take careful notice when the Russians have crowded the house.

Everywhere the dancers appear the spectators say to themselves "Russia is the land of a great art." Under the spell of the dancing there fade away the old, old thoughts of Russia—vodka, the knout and Siberian exile. Never before has Russia been so high in American esteem, and it is mostly because of the great art of Mordkin and his associates. This company carries its own special orchestra of fifty pieces. Orders sent to Manager Scott will receive prompt attention. Prices range from 15c to $3.

"The Chocolate Soldier" at Lexington.

"The Chocolate Soldier," which the Whitney Opera Company will offer at the Lexington Opera House Thursday night could not have achieved the world wide vogue which it still enjoys except for its superlative operatic and dramatic merits. No more entrancing or amusing story could be found for the theme of an opera than Bernard Shaw's "Arms and the Man," the famous romantic satire on heroes and hero worship, which, as a drama, has been translated and performed in half a dozen languages. With Shaw contributing the dramatic elements and Straus the music to the formation of an opera, it was inevitable that a masterpiece should be the result.

Straus' ability to express in music any emotion that can be expressed in words has never ceased to astonish critics and playgoers alike. In portraying the audacious adventures of Bumeli, the Bulgarian Don Quixote, his storming of women's hearts and the havoc wrought with the conceit and vanity of his associates. Shaw is forever parodying the emotions and betraying the ludicrousness of his characters. Straus, in inimitable music, has mirrored this to perfection. In the pompous marches there is a discernible sneer, in the love ballads there is the mockery of the satirist, and the daring composer, after raising his audience to ecstasy by some exquisite refrain, bewilders them with songs and movements crackling with jibes and scornful merriment. Throughout Shaw and Straus have mingled ridicule and romance, sentiment and satire, so deftly that the spectators are never quite sure which will be uppermost in the next moment. "My Hero," "Never Was There Such a Lover," "The Letter Song," and many others testify to Straus' wizardry in the realm of music. The company carries a special orchestra of seventeen musicians. Seat sale begins Thursday morning.

"Where is a good drug store," asked the bride. "I must have some tooth-powder and some cosmetics."

"Right here," replied Uncle Bill. Just then the trio happened in front of L. Oberdorfer. "This is a well appointed and most reliable drug store, and it is conducted along progressive lines, too," he said. "I get my prescriptions filled here, because I know the prescription case is in charge of a painstaking and efficient prescriptionist who is ever prompt and accurate to all alike. L. Oberdorfer is always replete with a large and varied stock of drugs, medicines, chemicals and manifold accessories to this branch, in fact everything that is needed to meet the demands of the people. The house enjoys the confidence and esteem of a large acquaintanceship and it's here you will want to deal," said Uncle Bill.

Next we will go to Doty's studio, and sit for pictures," suggested Uncle Bill, "for nothing recalls reminiscences of the honeymoon in after years so vividly as a good photograph, and one taken at Doty's gallery will be a real likeness of you. He is not a 'camera snapper,' but a portrait photographer, as the specimens on exhibition at the pleasingly arranged gallery and reception room attest and that all photographers are alike, capable of achieving the same results, is no more true than pen, ink and paper make the same author," said Uncle Bill. "J. H. Doty, aside from an ample and thoroughly equipped establishment, not only possesses the art of posing but also understands the worth of preception as well, which distinguishes him as a portrait artist, and makes for this gallery more than a local name."

Missionary Rally is Held Here.

The Union Missionary Rally was held in the Methodist church Friday afternoon and was largely attended. The program was interesting and instructive in every detail.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. W. E. Simms, while the devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. W. O. Hinton. Mrs. H. A. Power had charge of the musical program and was assisted by Mrs. M. H. Dailey, who presided at the organ.

The first paper was on "Preventive and Rescue Work," by Miss Louise Bauer of the Methodist church. "Our Training Schools," was presented by Mrs. Harrison, of the Baptist church, teacher of elocution at Bourbon College. "Our Mountain Work" was given by Mrs. J. S. Wilson, Presbyterian representative and "Our Bible Chair Work," by Mrs. Walter Payne, of the C. W. B. M. Mrs. Carey E. Morgan then led in the Round Table discussion, which was participated in by Mrs. Harry B. Clay, Mrs. Robert Goggin, Mrs. E. B. January, Mrs. Walter Clark, Mrs. Power and others. The result of the membership campaign was reported by the chairman of the committee, resulting as follows: The Presbyterian society gained 28 new members; Methodist, 25 adult members, 7 to the juvenile society and 4 to the cradle roll; Baptist 25 and Christian 28.

Owing to the inclement weather the attendance at the evening session was somewhat reduced. The address of Mrs. E. E. Grubbs, of Winchester, on Loyalty to Christ was heard with a great deal of interest by all present.

Agreement Reached in Tobacco Suits.

As a result of the meetings between the attorneys of the Burley Tobacco Society and independent tobacco manufacturers, which were held in Lexington last week with a view of compromising the suits and counter suits filed over the purchase of the 1907 crop of Burley tobacco, which was sold to the independents by the Burley Society at 17 cents a pound and part of which they declined to accept, an agreement was reached Saturday, under the terms of which, if 85 per cent of the independents sign, and it is believed they will, the Burley Tobacco Society will consent to dismiss all actions.

This will serve to settle all differences between the contending parties and will restore good feeling.

The proposition came several days ago from independents who were represented by Mr. W. F. Axton, of the Axton-Fisher Tobacco Company of Louisville. The Burley Society was represented by its Executive Board, which turned the matter of a suitable agreement over to the society's attorneys, Senator Joseph B. Foraker, former Governor of Ohio; Col. John R. Allen, of Lexington, and Messrs. D. L. Pendleton, of Winchester, and T. L. Edelen, of Frankfort.

The papers were drawn and delivered late Saturday afternoon and will be submitted to the independent manufacturers by Mr. Axton.

Takes Suddenly Ill.

Mr. John A. Larue, a prominent farmer of Shawhan, was taken suddenly ill Friday morning near his home and for a time his condition was regarded as serious. Mr. Larue was on his farm near Shawhan superintending some work in company with Mr. Thomas Henry Clay, Jr., started toward his house, walking at a rapid gait. Mr. Clay addressed a remark to his companion and receiving no reply, turned toward him and noticed that he looked very ill. Mr. Larue sank to the ground in a faint. Mr. Clay summoned assistance and the unconscious man was carried to the house where physicians were summoned. Drs. Fithian & Daugherty responded to the call and restored Mr. Larue to consciousness. His illness is attributed to an attack of heart trouble, and although he is considered out of danger his physicians advise absolute rest.

MISSOURIAN'S LIFE SAVED BY A MULE

Animal Receives Load of Shot Which Was Intended for His Master.

TARGET IN FEUD FIGHT

Neighbors Had Trouble Over Ditch and Body of Lowly Long-Eared Beast Serves as Shield Until Anger of Armed Assailant Cools.

Macon, Mo.—A Missouri mule has added new laurels to his kind. According to the record in a case in the Macon circuit court a long-eared animal that tolls on an Eagle township tract for Farmer Ben Harrison, saw his neighbor, Alonzo Dixon, point a deadly gun, "to-wit, a shotgun loaded with gunpowder and ball," at his master. It was so sudden that Harrison had no time to dodge, but the mule stepped in the breach just as Dixon pulled the trigger and received the load intended for Harrison.

The mule did not die. He kept his body between his master and his assailant until Dixon's anger cooled, and he was glad his shot had not reached the target he aimed at.

The trouble was over the drainage ditch between the men's farms. Dixon thought Harrison was encroaching on his land and went out to see about it. He got mad about it and fired at Harrison, but hit the mule.

To shoot at a man with a deadly weapon is a felony, whether your bullet lands or not. Information was filed in due form, and process served.

Mule Saves Master's Life.

and Dixon came down to Macon to let the circuit judge fix his punishment.

Harrison had sent word that he wouldn't prosecute the man who had shot at him, and that if it were necessary to pronounce a penitentiary sentence he hoped the court would parole him. Harrison said Dixon had a large family to provide for and that it would never do to take him away from them. Judge Shelton sentenced Dixon to the penitentiary for two years, and then paroled him.

"I admit I was a bit hasty," said Dixon, "and I'm mighty glad the old mule was in the way. Harrison is a good man, and we had been friends until that ditch matter came up."

HAVE ADAM AND EVE PARADE

Society Procession as Aftermath of Smart Dance Shocks Pennsylvania Town.

Latrobe, Pa.—Society of this place is shocked over a parade, the aftermath of a smart dance, which occurred along the main thoroughfare of Latrobe early the other morning.

Some of the costumes worn by members of the fair sex in the parade were too shocking to mention. Some appeared as "Eves" and their male companions as "Adams." And there were enough "Salomes" to fill a small-sized theater.

Shortly before dawn the residents of Latrobe were startled by yells that sounded something like Indian war-whoops. As soon as the paraders were sure everybody was looking they gave a series of dances in the middle of the street.

Some one telephoned the police. A policeman, who incidentally is a Sunday school teacher, was sent with orders to arrest the crowd. He went, he saw, but he failed to conquer, because he could not stand the sight. He ran back to the police station emitting cries of "O, horrors!"

Next day he was "put on the books" for failing to arrest the masqueraders. The parade given by the smart set of Newport was a Sunday school meeting compared to this parade, according to those who viewed it from bedroom windows.

Shot by His Own Wolf Trap.
Wilber, Neb.—Arthur Krauter, a farmer near here, was shot by his own spring gun wolf trap. He was trying to drive a calf into his barn and accidentally stumbled over the trap, kicking the bait. Both barrels of the gun were discharged into his feet and legs. More than 80 shots were removed later.

FREE SAMPLE CURED OLD PERSON'S BOWEL TROUBLE

One of the most remarkable proofs of the unusual laxative merit contained in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is that it is effective not only in people in the prime of life, but at the extremes of ages. As many letters are received from mothers regarding the cures of children, as from men and women of sixty, seventy and eighty years of age. It must be truly a wonderful laxative.

In the cure of constipation and bowel trouble in old people it has no equal. It corrects the constipation, dispels the headache, biliousness, gas, drowsiness after eating, etc. People advancing in years should see to it that their bowels move freely, and if they do not to take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You can prolong your life by healthy bowel action. Clogged bowels invite disease. Women about to pass the menstrual period cannot do better than use Syrup Pepsin several times a week until the system has settled to its future condition.

Among the strongest supporters of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are Mr. W. G. Zorn of New Decatur, Ala., and Mr. George S. Spaulding of the National Soldiers' Home, Kansas, both elderly men. The regular size bottles can be bought of any druggist at fifty cents and one dollar, but a free sample bottle can be had by sending your address to the doctor.

Use Leisure Time Wisely.

Bind together your spare hours by the cord of some definite purpose and you know not how much you may accomplish. A man is commonly either made or marred for life by the use he makes of his leisure time.—Taylor.

Journalism.

Friend—Did you write that editorial advocating pie for breakfast?
Editor (wearily)—Yes. The business manager's wife wants to break into the social set of the president of the pie trust.—Puck.

Moral in Evolution.

The history of evolution is one long record of victory in the face of apparently insuperable obstacles. Man is man because he is ever doing the impossible—or that which seems such to weakness and folly.—Rev. W. E. Stmonds.

Patrolman Link's Effective Work.

Patrolman Fred Link has been exceptionally busy the past few days and succeeded in bringing three violators to justice, all of whom were in the courts yesterday and in each instance they drew fines or jail sentences. L. P. Atkinson, a foreman of a construction crew on the L. & N., came to town from down the road Friday and imbibed freely, became boisterous and was locked up by Patrolman Link. He was given his liberty and contrary to his promises to sober up took on a few more and Saturday morning woke to find himself behind the bars. Atkinson had on his person a large sum of money which was taken from him when he was jailed and upon his promises to appear in Police Court yesterday morning was again given his liberty. In Police Court yesterday morning he faced two charges of drunkenness and disorderly conduct and drew two fines amounting in the aggregate to $35.

Wm. Garrett, colored, was placed under arrest by Patrolman Link Saturday night. Garrett ran amuck on Sycamore street, where he was found by the officer. He was armed with a club with which he used upon another of his color with telling effect, a pistol and a badge sent out from the American Detective Agency. The latter he thought would pull him through his trouble and it was displayed to the arresting officer, and claimed he had no authority to arrest him. In spite of his protests Garrett was lodged in jail and yesterday morning Judge January assessed a fine of $27.50 against the would-be sluth for carrying concealed weapons.

Patrolman Link executed a clever piece of detective work yesterday when he worked out the robbery of Geo. Rassenfoss' bakery which occurred Saturday night. An entrance was effected to the store and the intruder caught off a large quantity of goods. Jim Paton, an ex-convict, who was employed in the bakery was suspected and Officer Link traced the goods to the negro suburb of Claysville and placed Paton under arrest. In the county court Squire Fretwell gave Paton sixty days in jail at hard labor for the offense and assessed a fine of $20 and costs for breach of the peace.

Whistler's Sarcasm.

James McNeill Whistler is said once to have confronted Oscar Wilde—at the height of the aesthetic movement—with Du Maurier, who was satirizing the Postlethwaites in Punch with all his might, and to have genially inquired: "Which of you two invented the other?"

Mrs. W. M. Becraft died Sunday evening at eight o'clock at Jacksonville, Ill. Mrs. Becraft left her home about two weeks ago with her daughter, Mr. J. T. Jefferson, to visit relatives at that point. A few days ago she was stricken with a severe attack of pneumonia. Her husband, Mr. W. M. Becraft, a daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. R. Becraft, of Paris, left Sunday at 3:45 for her bedside. Mrs. Becraft had passed away before they reached her. She is survived by her husband, one son, Mr. W. R. Becraft, of Paris and one daughter, Mrs. J. T. Jefferson, of Millersburg.

The young ladies of Miss Walker's expression class gave the popular drama, "A Girl's Secret," at the M. F. C. chapel Saturday evening. The entertainment has been looked forward to for some time, hence the chapel began filling early and by the time the curtain went up, most of the available space of the vast auditorium was filled. The piece is a three act drama, the scene of which is laid in a boarding school. The characters were all well selected and each young lady did her part in an admirable manner. It was unquestionably the best prepared work of the kind ever put on the M. F. C. stage. The enunciation of each of the young ladies was perfect and every word could be clearly understood in the chapel, the acoustic properties of which are not good. The program between acts, which was made up of music and reading, gave the work a pleasing variety. This is the first time Miss Walker's class has appeared before the public in dramatic work. She certainly has good material, which show they have taken their training nicely all of which reflect great credit upon their preceptress. Miss Walker will probably put on another piece in December.

Paris Defeats Normal Eleven.

Although they were outweighed at every point the Paris High School football team defeated the Normal School eleven at Richmond Friday afternoon, winning by a score of 6 to 0, in one of the prettiest contests for the local boys this season. The High School team put up a brilliant defense and worked their way into the enemy's territory after a series of hard struggles. Every member of the Paris team started in his position and deserved more credit than can be bestowed upon them by achieving such a victory over superior weight. Amburgy, fullback for the Richmond team, suffered an injury to his back while two other members were forced to retire on account of injuries.

Stronghold of Wasps.

An extraordinary nest of wasps was discovered lately on the Bedfordshire (Eng.) estate of Lord Amptill, where a man, using three wire wasp traps, has caught over 4,000 wasps. The nest consisted of six tiers, which stood six and a half inches high, and measured eight and a half inches across. The cells contained grubs and young wasps in different stages of growth.

Strive Always for Higher Things.

Sad will be the day for any man when he becomes contented with the thoughts he is thinking and the deeds he is doing—when there is not forever beating at the doors of his soul some great desire to do something larger which he knows that he was meant and made to do.—Phillips Brooks.

MATRIMONIAL.

—Mr. C. H. Mullikin and Mrs. Elsie Harry, both of Covington, came to Paris yesterday and secured a marriage license. They were united in marriage by Squire L. J. Fretwell in his office in the court house.

—Miss Evelyn Hickman, of Lexington, and Mr. W. E. Henry, of this city, were united in marriage in the former city, at the residence of the officiating minister, Elder I. J. Spencer at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Miss Hickman is a popular young woman of that city, and was employed as stenographer and bookkeeper at the store of V. Bogaret. Mr. Henry is a valued employee of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, a young man of sterling qualities with a host of friends.

The couple left Lexington for a short bridal trip and will return this evening to Paris where they will make their future home.

Box Supper Success.

A box supper was given at [Kiserton School house on Saturday night for the benefit of the school. A large crowd was present and the supper netted $87.60. Miss Rida Thornton, teacher, assisted by the young lady pupils entertained those present very delightfully. Col. Mason Forsyth acted as auctioneer. It was a very enjoyable affair.

Bronco Is Unbroken.

Bronco means simply an unbroken horse, be it thoroughbred or mongrel. Most think them a bad, sorry breed as compared to old English thoroughbreds and dray stocks. Let us think not, for the wild horses themselves were thoroughbred Spanish and Arabian once upon a time.
